

Identify three friends / peers / family members who are eligible to vote and

- o encourage them to: register to vote, make a plan for voting, research the candidates and issues on the ballot
- o remind them to vote on Election Day.

Identify a candidate whose views you share and help with their campaign.

Picke group working on issues you care about and support their "Get Out the Vote" e orts. Learn about the candidates and ballot questions and share information with others.

Get paid to help your community vote at the polls.

Election judges (also known as poll workers) are a critical part of running elections and ensuring they are free and fair!

$250 - $325 per day

$50 for training (you must work your assigned shift to be paid for training)

You can serve as an election judge if you are:

Registered to vote in Maryland

Age 16 or older*; (If you are 16 or older, you may be able to serve if you show your local board of elections that you are qualified to be an election judge and a parent or guardian gives permission.)

Physically and mentally able to work at least a full ; (You must be able to sit and/or stand for an extended period and you may be required to lift boxes and other items weighing 10-25 pounds.)

Willing to work outside your home precinct

Can speak, read, and write English

For more information or to sign up, see the QR code above or https://www.powerthepolls.org/umcp

(*) If you are not planning to vote in Maryland, you can still use TurboVote! It will hook you up with all the information you need about other states, too!

Some cities in Maryland allow 16- and 17-year-olds to vote in municipal (local) elections, including: Chevy Chase, Greenbelt, Hyattsville, Mount Rainier, Riverdale Park, Somerset, and Takoma Park. Contact your local Board of Elections for more information.

